

SAMPLE TWEETS

- These are sample tweets posted from my secondary twitter account. If Tula was to use these tweets, the wording would be much different. For example, instead of saying “check out their new arrivals”, it would say “check out our new arrivals”. If Tula was to tweet these out on their own account, the lingo would look much more like the first example below: “have you had a chance to visit the store??? Come take a visit to Old Town and check out what we have!”
